

Everything You Need to Know About Estate Planning Notarization in Tacoma, WA

Estate planning protects your legacy. Proper notarization ensures your documents hold up in court.

Common Documents Needing Notarization:

- Wills: Optional but recommended to make it "self-proving."
- Powers of Attorney: Requires notarization or witnesses.
- Living Trusts: Required for legal validity.
- Healthcare Directives: Often requires notarization.

2026 Legal Updates:

- Washington Estate Tax: Exemption increased to $3M.
- Digital Assets: Now being included in notarized plans.
- RON Standards: Washington has strict standards for audio-video recording and document retention.

What to Bring:

- Valid photo ID.
- Unsigned documents.
- Any required witnesses.

RON for Estate Planning:

Starting at $25, RON is a great way to handle amendments or powers of attorney when family members are in different locations.